

Arc Terminals LP Announces Acquisition of a 50% Interest in the Baltimore Terminal

The Woodlands, TX – February 1, 2010 – Arc Terminals LP announced today that it has completed the acquisition of a 50% ownership interest in a refined petroleum products terminal located in Baltimore, Maryland from Motiva Enterprises, LLC.

The Baltimore Terminal contains approximately 900,000 barrels of storage and handles light petroleum products including gasoline, ethanol and distillates. Its modes of transportation include marine, pipeline, rail and truck. With the Baltimore Terminal acquisition, Arc Terminals now has eight terminals located in seven states and a combined storage capacity of 2.1 million barrels.

Arc Terminals funded the transaction through a capital investment from Lightfoot Capital Partners, LP.
